

NATIONAL BOARD FOR
CERTIFIED COUNSELORS®

Congratulations on passing your examination!

What are your next steps toward becoming a National Certified Counselor?

If you graduated from a CACREP-accredited program:

Submit a final, official transcript showing your degree conferral date. You can either have it sent to certification@nbcc.org if using a secure transmission service or mail your transcript to NBCC Certification Department, 3 Terrace Way, Greensboro, NC 27403-3660.

If you graduated from an institutionally accredited program:

Submit a final, official transcript showing your degree conferral date. You can either have it sent to certification@nbcc.org if using a secure transmission service or mail your transcript to NBCC Certification Department, 3 Terrace Way, Greensboro, NC 27403-3660.

You will also need to complete one of the following post-master's experience and supervision requirements:

- 3,000 hours of counseling work experience and 100 hours of supervision spanning at least 24 months from the date your degree is conferred; or
- Documentation of a full and current license from a state professional counselor licensure board; or
- An official, sealed transcript documenting conferral of a PhD or EdD in counseling.

Once your documentation has been reviewed and approved, you will be certified as a National Certified Counselor (NCC)!

Your certificate will be mailed to you via the postal mailing address that you have listed in your ProCounselor account. * Note that reviews typically take 6–8 weeks

Need your scores sent to a third party (such as a state licensure board)? Curious about the status of your review? Log in to your ProCounselor account today!
